Daily Racing Form

VOL. III. NO. 287. CHICAGO, THURSDAY, DECEMBER 2, 1897. PRICE, 5 CENTS

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

What's all this folly of discussing Pimlico's "outlaw" stand because it elects to race after November 30? The daily papers are as dense as a London fog over turf government and turf law and have put Pimlico into "the bush" on a Turf Congress basis. Why? What has the Turf Congress to do with Pimlico? The Jockey Club rules the land in which it lives and moves and has its being. The Jockey Club has given Pimlico permission to race. Therefore it will race and there will be no violation of turf law or jolt to the fine feelings or discipline of any turf body. The racing notion of the daily newspaper nowadays seems to turn only to the manufacture of cheap mischief.

The same newspaperic venom turned up over the clash between Charles Boots of the California edition of the Horseman's Protective Association and Tom Williams of the California Jockey Club. All the alleged trouble is over. Mr. Boots was forced to the front in a dictatorial way by some marplots and Williams—an up and down sturdy character—refused his plaint as unreasonable and told him to get his horses off the Oakland track. Then the dailies built the map of a war between Oakland and Ingleside—Tom Williams and Corrigan. Superficially they found sharp material for use in the surmise that two such strong fighters were about to fight.

As a matter of fact, there was no material for a battle. Ed. Corrigan and Tom Williams are good friends nowadays. They entered into a commonsensible alliance for business purposes last fall. Ingleside did not take up the Boots side of the case. Mr. Boots and Mr. Williams made peace and there isn't any present Californian trouble. There was a spell of doubt and during it, the association that had supplied Mr. Boots with his ammunition, deserted him. Charley Boots is a clever fellow, a scholar and an enthusiastic, though not a good, practical horseman. Such men are the tonics of the sport.

The same "double, double toil and trouble" spirit of the newspapers shows in the daily discussion about the Jockey Club's stand against the Eastern Horseman's Protective Association. Mr. Belmont is pictured as a pinching dictator against the guaranteed stake demand. What folly and insult? Mr. Belmont deserves better treatment. There would not be any healthy racing in the east nowadays if he had not—Horatio like—stood in the gap when the cranks were moving against the sport, as the Tuscan army bore on the bridge o'er the Tiber "in the brave days of old." Belmont was the Horatio, Keene the Spurius Lartius and A. H. Morris the Herminius of the bridge of survival about racing—via the Percy Gray law—in the Metropolitan district. Such men always do their best. They may err; that's human, but they do not err long. Mr. Belmont and the eastern horsemen will agree. There will be no conflict in the Eastern racing district, no matter what the extent of the newspaper effort to breed it.

F. H. BRUNELL.

DAILY RACING FORM'S HONESTY.

Daily Racing Form still continues his honesty of racing. The colt's performance is a keen tribute to the horsemanship of Tully Coulter his owner, James Coulter his trainer and Master Gray who has always ridden the colt when he has been in front. Daily Racing Form in his short career has run nine races, won three, run second twice, been third twice and unplaced twice. Few colts have performed as honestly as the son of Burlington, the gentleman in black, and notional but lady Ella Blackburn. He's a first foal too. Look out for his coming relative.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

The Californian owner of the so called Bodacia, J. H. Tam, while accorded the clear right to name what he owns as he chooses, would confer a favor on that public corner of the turf which seeks a reason for its doings, by displaying a map of origin as to Bodacia.

The recent sloppiness of comment that classes Conley, the present, with "Overton at his best" and "not much inferior to Isaac Murphy, when the latter was in his prime" illustrates one of the evils of newspaper influence on the turf.

The stable gathered by John Mackey will race in San Francisco in the name of W. B. Jennings & Co.

"Lucky" Baldwin has "decided" again: this time to have no more to do with Eastern racing.

HAMBURG'S GOOD MOTHER.

Hamburg comes honestly by his speed. If he has stamina there may be some fortune about his birthright. Hanover, his sire, had already made a reputation in the stud, but his dam, Lady Reel, was practically unknown, save as a good race mare. Investigation shows that Lady Reel's dam, Mannie Gray, was the greatest brood mare the American turf has ever known in the amount of money won by her produce. This prolific mare, unlike her grandson, never made an enviable record on the turf. She was bred by the late General A. Buford, that eccentric Kentucky turfman, who believed that horses had souls and that they would go to heaven. She was by Enquirer. Her dam was Lizzie G, by War Dance, and she out of a mare by Le Compte, and her dam was that great mare, Old Edith by Sovereign, thus running into the Rell or Gallopade family, from which so many noted turf performers have sprung. Following is a list of the produce of Mannie Gray, together with the amount of money won by her sons and daughters:

| | |
|---|---|
| Ten Strike, by Ten Broeck | $ 6,000 |
| Sir Knight, by Fellowcraft | 4,000 |
| Bandala, by King Ban | 1,000 |
| Bannerale, by King Ban (died early, did not race) | ..... |
| Lady Reel (dam of Hamburg), by Fellowcraft | 5,000 |
| Madam Reel, by Fellowcraft | 4,000 |
| Correction, by Himyar | 50,000 |
| Freemason, by Fellowcraft (never raced) | ..... |
| Domino (largest winner on American turf), by Himyar | 200,000 |
| Bay filly, by Himyar (died as yearling) | ..... |
| Surefoot, by Himyar (died before starting) | ..... |
| Mannie Himyar, by Himyar (never raced) | ..... |
| Total | $270,000 |

Shortly after foaling Mannie Himyar, in 1894, Mannie Gray died and the filly was raised by hand. This so stunted her that she never attained full size and is now only 14 hands high. The sister of Domino, which died in 1892 of lung fever after being shipped to New York for sale, was the exact counterpart of her famous brother when he was a yearling. Mr. Keene, having won such an enormous amount with Domino, offered Major Thomas $15,000 for his sister before she left the paddocks at Hira Villa, but the Major desiring that she should go into the sale and thus allow every turfman in America the opportunity to compete for the valuable filly On her way to New York she took cold, which rapidly developed into lung fever, causing her death.

Considering the amount of money won by her produce and the way in which her daughters are breeding, the thousand dollars invested in Mannie Gray by Major Thomas was the best spent money ever laid out for horseflesh.

Lady Reel, although only 11 years old, and after she had won $5000 on the turf, has produced the following winners:

| | |
|---|---|
| Strathreel, by Strathmore | $ 7,000 |
| Amanda, by Strathmore | 6,000 |
| Clatterfeet, by Strathmore | 1,000 |
| Hamburg, by Hanover | 39,000 |
| Total | $53,000 |

This makes the large sum of $323,000 won by the produce of Mannie Gray and her daughter, Lady Reel.

Lady Reel has been bred back to Hanover. Her daughter, Amanda, has been bred to Tenny, and Clatterfeet has been bred to St. Leonards. Mannie Himyar, the full sister to Domino, and the last foal of old Mannie Gray, has been bred to Prince of Monaco.

Winner—Ch. h, 5, by Mariner—Queen Emma.

Start good. Won driving. Mainstay was lucky and perfectly ridden. Caliente was best and badly ridden. He was shut off at the start. Don Fulano was vilely handled and cut off at the head of the stretch. He is one of the gamest of horses and is at his best in soft going. Colorado was short. He inclines to weight and was badly handled. Dance was always outrun. He was not in his place and favors a route. Watch Decision. He ran short. Ban was practically left.

Winner—B. c, by St George—Levee.

Start good. Won ridden out. Lee was lucky. Marplot was best and should have won. Lee inclines to a route. Marplot ran an impressive race. He was interfered with at the start. Morellito's race was below the notch. He favors mud, was badly ridden and was cut off at head of stretch and near finish. Watomba ran short and was far from well handled. Mud is welcome to him. He is ready. Watch Roxey Murphy. He is but a sprinter and was out of his place. So was Mistleton. Ione is only worth consideration in mud. Lebel is of no present account.

Scratched—Los Prietos, 115.

Winner—B. f, by Faverdale—Sweet Home.

Start good. Won ridden out. Faverdale was best, luckiest, was favored by track and is in sharp form. Joe was villainously ridden and used far too much with Mamie Scott. Double Quick was interfered with at the start and on first turn. After his trouble he made up ground throughout. Scott was used too much with Joe and was in too aristocratic company. Santuzza and Thelma were also outclassed.

Winner—B. g, 3, by Favor—Imperieuse.

Start good. Won cleverly. Peirsal outclassed his field and is a marvel at the game. Our Climate is a neat article himself. The Captain played with him. Climate had a bit too much weight up. Budd was shut off on the first turn and pulled up in the stretch. J O C was shut off going to first jump and badly ridden. He likes a distance and sulks. The Bachelor is a clumsy jumper. He was eased up. He favors a route. Hyman was short. Mestor is best in mellow going.

Overweights—Capt. Peirsal, 1 pound; Monita, 2; Viking, 1½.

Parthemax was not well ridden and shut off on the back stretch. Throw out this race. Personne is best in mud and at a route. Was badly ridden and closed strong at end. Sly is but a sprinter, seemed to be short and was pulled up at the finish.

Winner—B. g, 3, by The Bard—Loyalty.

Start good. Won driving. Wordsworth had a lot left. He could have won easier. Dalgretti lost a lot of ground on the first turn. Debride weakened when the pinch came. Maurice had bad racing luck. So did Her Own. Both were sharply interfered with on the first turn. Dalgretti made his move too soon.

Scratched—L B, 103; Hi Daddy, 103; Squan, 103; Taranto, 101; Hugh Penny, 117.

Overweights—Louise N, 3 pounds.
